This book would not have been written without the support of many people, who took part in its creation by counsels or practical help. I wish to thank in first place all my colleagues at the Czech Institute of Egyptology and at the Czech National Centre for Egyptology.

The general conception of the work as well as the individual steps in the work that was originally developed as a master's thesis at the Faculty of Arts of Charles University proceeded with the assistance of Prof. Miroslav Verner and Prof. Zdeněk Benes. Many valuable counsels and stimuli came also from Ass. Prof. Ladislav Barš, PhDr. Hana Dvořáková, Dr. Jana Horneková, Dr. Jan Horstky, Ass. Prof. Ivan Jakubec, Dr. Jaromír Málek, Dr. phil. Wolf B. Oerter, Prof. Jaroslava Pešková, Ass. Prof. Roman Prahl, PhDr. Jiřina Rižová, Ass. Prof. Jiří Sicių, and Ass. Prof. Břetislav Vachala. During my numerous visits in the friendly atmosphere of the Institute of Egyptology at the University of Vienna, Dr. Johanna Holoubek also played an important role in the formation of the content of the work, and I would also like to mention the help and advice of Mag. Irene Kaplan, Mrs Evelyn Wahnig, Mag. Konrad Antoniet and Ass. Prof. Peter Janosi, and, in addition, Dr. Erich Sommerauer and Dr. Gottfried Hammernik. Furthermore, I would like to mention by name my colleagues Mgr. Hana Benešová, Dr. Jiří Janák, Adéla Macková, PhDr. Roman Mišek, Dr. František Ondráš, PhDr. Lucie Storchová and Mgr. Hana Vymazalová, who helped me with their knowledge of different fields of research and sources. Last, but not least, I would like to express my gratitude to Mgr. Renata Landgrýfová, who translated this text and added a number of valuable comments. Both authors would like to thank Mr James Grimaldi for the revision of the chapter 'The background of Austrian economic influence in Egypt, Sudan and the Levant.'

While acquiring my source materials, I had to visit a number of institutions. To all their employees, who allowed me to study and publish the materials, I extend my thanks. Some I would like to mention by name. I have studied materials of the Austrian State Archives in Vienna (Dr. L. Auer, Dr. E. Peitrisch), the archive of the National Museum in Prague (Prof. J. Čechura, Dr. M. Bětišová, and other assistants of the study room of the archive), the archive of the National Theatre (Mgr. Z. Benešová and Mgr. T. Součková), of the Memorial of National Literacy (Dr. R. Dačeta, Mgr. Mejštříková, Mr Vaniš), of the Archive of the Charles University (Prof. J. Peřtín, members of the study hall of the archive), of the Archive of Architecture of the National Technical Museum, of the National Library of the Czech Republic – Department of manuscripts, and the Náprstek Museum (above all Dr. J. Součková, director of the museum, Mgr. S. Paulasová and Dr. Barbořová). A significant part of the manuscript was written during my stay in Vienna in winter 2000-2001 supported by the scholarship of the Austrian government in terms of the programme AKTION, and additions were made during a study stay in Austrian State Archives in Vienna in May 2002, AKTION project 33 p 15.

The rich illustrations, accompanying this volume, were made possible through the kind permit from the following institutions and individuals: Mrs Alena Bítke; the City Gallery Prague (Galerie Hlavního města Prahy, Mrs Jelineková); Petr Meissner; Archives of the Czech Institute of Egyptology, Kamil Voděra; and others as indicated in photo credits.

For the financial patronage of the book my thanks go to the Czech National Centre for Egyptology of Charles University (Project LN 00A064) and to the Unis Ltd, namely Ing. Jiří Kovář.

The publication was carefully edited and supervised by the Set Out publishing house, where I am indebted to PhDr. Roman Mišek, and Mrs Jana Karotíková for giving the manuscript the final book form. Finally, while I am aware that I could not have mentioned by far everyone who enabled me to publish this book or assisted at its creation on the professional level, I would like to express my gratitude to those who helped me on the personal level, above all to my family and all my friends.
